

senior valuer

- Join Sydney's fastest growing boutique auction house
- A hands-on opportunity for a lover of antiques and auctions
- Newly created role - flexible hours

Bargain Hunt Auctions is the largest auction house on Sydney's North Shore, servicing greater Sydney and beyond. The fortnightly auctions consist of antiques, collectables, china, silver, jewellery, quality used furniture as well as specialty sales including vintage toys, militaria and fine art. Bargain Hunt also conducts on-site house contents sales.

Reporting to the Directors, this role is responsible for the preparation of all auctions including accepting and receiving items, evaluations, estimations, catalogue preparation, stock control and set up. Ideally you will also be in a position to introduce new clients.

You have an excellent general knowledge of antiques and collectables, preferably obtained in the auction or broader industry. You are either looking for a full time opportunity or contract work to supplement your existing career.

If a leadership role in a rapidly expanding environment motivates you then please phone or send your CV to Richard Green quoting reference # 30010 in the subject line.
