Business Services

- Newcastle Lifestyle

As a result of the firm's outstanding growth and exciting plans for the future, two new positions are available within the Newcastle Business Services team.

You will be joining a strong, dynamic group and this Partnership opportunity will call on your entrepreneurial skills, technical expertise, personal commitment and high energy to establish and extend client relationships. You will be rewarded with the satisfaction of knowing you make a real contribution to the firm and also to clients through partnering with them for success.

You must have a demonstrated ability to identify client needs, manage delivery and work with clients on strategic and management issues. The ability to develop a high performing team through leadership, mentoring, development and project management in addition to a solid understanding of tax and structuring is also essential.

The Manager position offers you the opportunity to develop your skills and career in an innovative client focused environment in which you will be mentored for partnership opportunities in the mid-term. You must have broad experience in business services, team management, leadership skills and a commitment to exceptional client service.

Audit

- Sydney CBD

Your focus will be to lead the Audit & Assurance team in achieving its aims of quality technical audit and the identification of client needs whilst playing an active role in the development of the division through the creation of new opportunities.

You are currently either an Audit Partner looking for the opportunity to make a difference with an organisation that focuses on performance or a Senior Manager seeking that next step.

To be considered for this highly sought after role you must be a registered Company Auditor and have detailed knowledge of Corporations Law as it applies to the audit function.

This is an outstanding opportunity with an attractive remuneration package for a talented Auditor to join an award winning firm that takes a very personal approach to its clients – an approach that clients value.
