

fundraising manager

- Assist international communities in need
- Drive fundraising for this major Catholic agency

Catholic Mission is the Australian arm of the Catholic Church's global aid agency and supports communities in need in more than 160 countries across Asia, Africa and South America.

This role will leverage the Mission's huge fundraising potential by encouraging the Australian community to support this global work. You will have a team reporting to you and work closely with the database manager to develop and drive the organisation's fundraising strategy. Travel to overseas communities may be required to experience the work of the agency first-hand.

Ideally, you are a mature fundraising professional and your excellent negotiation skills will enable you to work effectively with the community of church stakeholders. You have experience in database and direct marketing with a focus on regular giving, school and church giving, as well as bequests, events and major gifts.

If you would like to use your exceptional fundraising skills to advance the work of this highly credible Catholic agency then please contact Olivia Ryan on (02) 8243 0570 or email your resume to ngo_36a@ngorecruitment.com
