

head of internal audit

- Global Investment Bank
- Competitive salary and bonus structure
- Key position

Through acquisition and organic growth, this Investment Banking Group has gained a reputation for being a dynamic, progressive and entrepreneurial organisation. This is your opportunity to join this small team in a pivotal and responsible leadership role.

Due to the growth and development of the business, you will be called upon to provide a high quality audit service covering a wide range of Investment Banking activities. You will be responsible for the day to day management of the Internal Audit team, preparation of the annual audit program, ongoing communication with executive and senior management and the production of Internal Audit reports. You will report directly to the Chairman of the Audit and Compliance Committee.

You will have passion, energy and adaptability, and will thrive in a challenging environment. You will have excellent communication skills and the ability to interact at all levels of the organisation. You will have audit experience within financial services, ideally with exposure to lending and treasury or trading environments.

If the opportunity to join a leading investment bank in a role that offers responsibility and visibility is of interest to you, please contact Blaise Davis Habgood in our Banking & Finance Division or forward your resume to brg_20c@bradmanrecruitment.com quoting reference no. 27537BH.
