

Business Development Opportunity

- Fundraising, sponsorship or sales background
- $90K package (approx) plus benefits

The University of Technology Sydney is focused on practice-oriented education with strong links to industry, the professions and the community. The University has a growing research reputation and a strong international orientation.

Working closely with, and reporting to, the Director, Alumni and Development, this new role will develop and maintain relationships with senior alumni and donors. Your success in the role will reflect your ability to connect with people, and your excellent writing skills will enable you to produce marketing collateral, funding submissions and speeches with confidence.

This is an opportunity to utilise your fundraising or sales experience for a university renowned for its innovation. Your considered approach and understanding of the importance of quality donor/customer communications and events will result in increased loyalty and revenue from supporters of UTS.

If you are passionate about the advancement and integration of knowledge and technology for the benefit of the community, then please call Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to ngo_9@ngorecruitment.com
