

business development opportunity

- Australia's oldest charity
- Pioneering & innovative social programs
- Do you have 'high value' sales experience?

Established in 1813, The Benevolent Society has an annual turnover of $50m. It employs 700 staff and 900 volunteers to support over 10,000 vulnerable and disadvantaged children and adults in over 50 communities across metropolitan, regional and rural NSW.

This newly established role will be responsible for securing significant individual philanthropic funds to invest in leading edge initiatives at a community level. This role will also finance projects to drive social change and create a just society.

You may already be performing this role for a not-for-profit or have relevant experience in a commercial environment. You have the maturity and experience to develop existing relationships and to utilise your business development skills to identify new supporters and increase overall revenue. You will work closely with senior management and the Board of Directors.

If you have a passion for social justice and for the wellbeing of disadvantaged people please contact Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to ngo_10@ngorecruitment.com
