

BUSH HERITAGE
AUSTRALIA

philanthropy executive

- Two positions: Sydney and Melbourne
- Protect Australia's land, water and wildlife
- Corporate experience welcomed

Bush Heritage Australia protects the natural environment through the purchase and management of almost 1,000,000 hectares of high conservation value reserves. Funded primarily by significant donations, Bush Heritage has a vision to protect 1% of Australia by 2025.

You will work within a leading fundraising team securing major gifts from philanthropists, trusts, foundations and corporates. You will also develop contact strategies to identify, cultivate, solicit and steward a portfolio of generous supporters.

You have a track record in nurturing meaningful relationships and 'making the ask' resulting in significant donations, grants, sponsorships, partnerships or high value sales. You also provide excellent donor or customer care in a philanthropic, charitable, education, cultural or corporate setting.

If Australia's biodiversity is important to you, please contact Ant Clark on 03 9225 5100 or Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com
