

communications manager

- Leading international agency
- Create and drive cutting edge strategies
- Be the public face of animal welfare

WSPA works with animal protection groups worldwide to raise the standard of international animal welfare. Their vision is for "a world where animal welfare matters and animal cruelty ends".

You will deliver an integrated communications strategy by directing WSPA messaging, tone, branding and values. You will drive campaigns via media relations, electronic and print publications and a range of corporate marketing initiatives.

You will have extensive experience in managing internal and external communications and/or public affairs, ideally in a campaigning environment, using sophisticated communications strategies and products. Your well developed writing, professional presentation and strong web-based skills will be key to your success.

If you're passionate about the welfare of animals and are a modern communications professional then please contact Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or email your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com, quoting job #29467.
