

Brotherhood of St Laurence

Working for an Australia free of poverty

corporate relations manager

- Drive social change
- Leading corporate partnerships
- Raise significant support for the disadvantaged

The Brotherhood of St Laurence (BSL) is working towards an Australia free of poverty by providing services and programs for families and elderly people on low incomes, refugees, young people and the unemployed.

BSL also develops social and community enterprises to address inequality by forming partnerships with government, business, community and welfare organisations.

This role will be responsible for the nurturing and stewardship of multi level relationships ensuring a strong corporate support base including individual employees. In addition you will act as an ambassador and advocate for BSL in the corporate sphere.

You are an experienced business developer with a track record in either sponsorship or fundraising in a philanthropic or cultural setting.

Alternatively, you have developed commercial partnerships in the private sector. Your maturity and experience enable you to operate at senior levels resulting in relationships that deliver new and significant donations, grants and sponsorships.

If you would like to become part of the team fighting to see a poverty free Australia then please call Chris Mackay or Richard Green on 03 9225 5100 or send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting # 29793.
