

corporate relations manager

- Help the poorest people get access to safe water
- Newly created income generating role
- Corporate experience welcomed

WaterAid is an international NGO active in 26 countries in Africa, Asia and the Pacific which is dedicated to the provision of safe domestic water, sanitation and hygiene education to the world's poorest people; basic services essential to life that break the stranglehold of disease and poverty. WaterAid has a pro-active approach to development establishing low cost sustainable projects using technology that can be managed by the community itself.

In this newly created position you will be responsible for increasing corporate support through sponsorship, cause related marketing and partnerships as well as enhancing existing corporate relationships which include those with key players in Australia's water industry.

You have a track record in securing and nurturing meaningful relationships utilising your highly tuned business development skills and experience working with senior executives, board directors and high net worth individuals. You currently provide excellent donor or customer care in a philanthropic, charitable, education, cultural or corporate setting.

To apply your corporate relationship development experience in an innovative international NGO, please contact Mike Hurdle on 03 8319 4070 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting # 30907
