

event & communications director

- Further the careers of Australian & NZ performers
- Grow & lead a national events portfolio
- Develop the professional program & publications

The Equity Foundation is the professional development arm of Actors' Equity Australia and oversees Equity's publications and extensive professional development program. The Foundation aims to advance the interests of professional performers and performance in Australia, and the interests of Actors' Equity Australia.

You will be responsible for the overall growth and planning of the Foundation's sixty events and professional development portfolio and the publication of the Equity Magazine. Crucially, you will develop the sponsorship program to fund the overall growth of both programs and membership.

You have a track record in building professional development and event programs and sponsorship including the related communication and marketing strategies. Overall, you have a love of performance and performers and the creative energy to grow a brand.

If you are passionate about the arts and its professional development then please call Sadie Kelly on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference #30633.
