

fundraising & comms coordinator

- Would suit marketing graduates or 1 – 2 yrs exp
- Assist International communities in need
- Charity or Commercial experience welcomed

Catholic Mission is the Australian arm of the Catholic Church's global mission aid agency and part of a worldwide network supporting communities in need, in more than 160 countries across Asia, Africa and South America.

Use your marketing and communication skills to increase support from Australian donors and the general community to help tens of thousands of disadvantaged people.

You will be assisting the team in all forms of fundraising and communications marketing including direct mail, database marketing, donor and stakeholder development, the Internet and the media.

You are looking to move into the fundraising sector and have a great interest in above and below the line marketing, the media and Internet and information support. You take pride in producing outstanding marketing collateral and have an excellent eye for detail.

Excited? If you would like to use your marketing or Comms skills to further the vision of this highly respected Catholic aid agency then please call Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference # 29372
