

Brotherhood
of St Laurence

Working for an Australia free of poverty

fundraising database coordinator

- Help bring about a compassionate and just society
- Flexibility for part-time

The Brotherhood of St Laurence is an independent organisation that works towards an Australia free of poverty.

This role supports the fundraising team to raise vital funds to further this work. You are responsible for maintaining and developing the existing fundraising database, ensuring overall accuracy and integrity of data and reporting.

You have had exposure to fundraising programs; can interpret data accurately to produce meaningful reports and make recommendations across the organisation.

To use your exceptional database and communication skills to maximise support for The Brotherhood's work, forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com or call Ant Clark on 03 9225 5100.
