

head of finance

- Help the poorest people get access to safe water and sanitation
- $10 million revenue and growing
- Potential step up opportunity

WaterAid in Australia is a member of the WaterAid international network. Active in 26 countries in Africa, Asia and the Pacific, the organisation is dedicated to the provision of safe domestic water, sanitation and hygiene education to the world's poorest people; basic services essential to life that break the stranglehold of disease and poverty. WaterAid has a pro-active approach to development establishing low cost sustainable projects using technology that can be managed by the community itself.

Working closely with the CEO and board, you will lead a small team managing the finance, accounting, company secretary/legal and general administration functions of the agency. Your responsibilities range from the strategic to the hands on.

You possess experience in a comparable role, can demonstrate reporting and systems skills and have influencing ability at executive and board levels. Ideally, you understand the financial management and regulatory issues impacting Australian not for profit and development organisations. You're tertiary qualified in accounting or a related discipline and are a member of a recognised accounting body. In addition you have a heart for the poor and disadvantaged and are aligned with the values and working style of a not for profit organisation.

If you would like to apply your finance, accounting and management skills in an innovative international NGO, please contact Mike Hurdle on (03) 8319 4070 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting # 30957.

NGO
Recruitment
A division of Bradman Recruitment