

campaign manager – asia pacific humane & sustainable agriculture

- Create a world where animal welfare matters and animal cruelty ends
- Food agriculture or supply chain experience welcomed
- Asia Pacific based, location flexible

WSPA's vision is a world where animal welfare matters and animal cruelty ends. With consultative status at the UN and the Council of Europe WSPA is active in more than 50 countries and has hundreds of thousands of supporters worldwide. WSPA campaigns to convince governments and key decision makers to change policies, practices and legislation to ensure animals are protected.

This role's primary aim is to provide regional leadership to the campaign on Humane & Sustainable Agriculture. The campaign will be measured in numbers of farm animals whose welfare has been improved through changes in legislation, policy and practice and the introduction of humane and sustainable solutions. You will manage a small but growing regional team and work closely with an International network.

You have extensive experience in farm animal welfare or a related discipline in a campaign, advocacy or government relations role ideally in the animal welfare, food agriculture or supply chain sectors. You must have extensive experience in the Asia Pacific region and available to spend time travelling.

If you can demonstrate your success advocating change towards the advancement of animal welfare please email your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com or contact Richard Green or Annie Barker in Sydney on +61 2 8243 0570 quoting job # 31010.
