

GREENPEACE

major relationships manager

- Raise significant funds for high profile campaigns
- Work with passionate philanthropists
- Commercial experience welcomed

Greenpeace is a high profile independent campaigning organisation that uses non-violent direct action to expose global environmental issues and to provide solutions which are essential to a green and peaceful future.

With over two million financial supporters worldwide Greenpeace has been instrumental in moving the environmental debate into the mainstream issue it is today.

Providing expert analysis on the major relationships program, you will be responsible for the development and implementation of strategies to acquire, engage and nurture high value donors including philanthropists, trusts, foundations and bequestors. This role works closely with the senior management team to develop supporter relationships and maximise income.

You have a track record in 'making the ask' in either a philanthropic or commercial environment resulting in significant donations or sales. You're able to demonstrate strong interpersonal skills utilising your highly tuned relationship nurturing and/or business development experience working with senior executives, board directors and other key supporters.

If this role encapsulates your passion for the environment combined with results based fundraising please contact Richard Green or Annie Barker on 02 8243 0570 or forward your CV to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting #30966.
