

principal lawyer

- Advise seniors experiencing abuse
- Legal team leadership role
- Fixed term maternity leave contract

Seniors Rights Victoria ("SRV") is a joint venture of several community legal centres operating under the leadership of the Council on the Ageing Victoria. SRV provides a free service to assist older people experiencing physical, sexual, financial, psychological or social abuse or neglect. Such abuse generally occurs in a relationship of trust.

Reporting to the Manager of SRV, you will lead and supervise a small legal team operating from a number of locations in Victoria. The team uses an empowerment model in working with SRV clients. You will also play a key role in contributing to systemic advocacy and law reform projects relating to ageing and elder abuse.

You have a track record of successful legal practice and team leadership, preferably with an advocacy or community-oriented focus. You hold a full practicing certificate and have a demonstrated commitment to natural justice.

If empowering older Victorians to live in safety, with dignity and independence is of personal interest, then please call Mike Hurdle on (03) 8319 4070 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com (Vacancy 30640)

Recruitment

A division of Bradman Recruitment and Franchise Partner of CareersMultiList

Blaise 146894

principal lawyer

- Advise seniors experiencing abuse
- Legal team leadership role
- Fixed term maternity leave contract

Seniors Rights Victoria ("SRV") is a joint venture of several community legal centres operating under the leadership of the Council on the Ageing Victoria. SRV provides a free service to assist older people experiencing physical, sexual, financial, psychological or social abuse or neglect. Such abuse generally occurs in a relationship of trust.

Reporting to the Manager of SRV, you will lead and supervise a small legal team operating from a number of locations in Victoria. The team uses an empowerment model in working with SRV clients. You will also play a key role in contributing to systemic advocacy and law reform projects relating to ageing and elder abuse.

You have a track record of successful legal practice and team leadership, preferably with an advocacy or community-oriented focus. You hold a full practicing certificate and have a demonstrated commitment to natural justice.

If empowering older Victorians to live in safety, with dignity and independence is of personal interest, then please call Mike Hurdle on (03) 8319 4070 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com (Vacancy 30640)

Blaise 146894

principal lawyer

- Advise seniors experiencing abuse
- Legal team leadership role
- Fixed term maternity leave contract

Seniors Rights Victoria ("SRV") is a joint venture of several community legal centres operating under the leadership of the Council on the Ageing Victoria. SRV provides a free service to assist older people experiencing physical, sexual, financial, psychological or social abuse or neglect. Such abuse generally occurs in a relationship of trust.

Reporting to the Manager of SRV, you will lead and supervise a small legal team operating from a number of locations in Victoria. The team uses an empowerment model in working with SRV clients. You will also play a key role in contributing to systemic advocacy and law reform projects relating to ageing and elder abuse.

You have a track record of successful legal practice and team leadership, preferably with an advocacy or community-oriented focus. You hold a full practicing certificate and have a demonstrated commitment to natural justice.

If empowering older Victorians to live in safety, with dignity and independence is of personal interest, then please call Mike Hurdle on (03) 8319 4070 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com (Vacancy 30640)

Blaise 146694