

senior campaigner

- Media & entertainment industry - news, TV and radio
- Campaign and negotiate at the highest level
- Attractive salary package – circa $120,000

The Media Entertainment & Arts Alliance is the professional organisation for the media, entertainment, sports and arts industries. It represents actors, journalists and entertainment industry employees and has over 22,000 members. The Alliance runs professional program activities and also campaigns on broader issues affecting members.

Reporting to the CEO, you will manage national industrial campaigns and negotiate enterprise agreements in all areas of the media, including television, radio and newspapers. You will grow the Alliance's membership base and drive the organisation's vision, leading a team of organisers, negotiating collective agreements, and representing the Alliance in industrial tribunals.

You have excellent initiative and demonstrated high-level negotiation skills. Knowledge of the media and entertainment industries, and their legal framework, organising experience and/or experience in a related sector would be desirable. Your background may be industrial relations, human resources or law and it is likely you may currently be working in the union, music, performing arts, cultural, community, education, advocacy or not-for-profit sectors.

If you want to drive campaign strategy for this crucial representative body, please contact Olivia Ryan on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference # 30101.

senior campaigner

- Media & entertainment industry - news, TV and radio
- Campaign and negotiate at the highest level
- Attractive salary package – circa $120,000

The Media Entertainment & Arts Alliance is the professional organisation for the media, entertainment, sports and arts industries. It represents actors, journalists and entertainment industry employees and has over 22,000 members. The Alliance runs professional program activities and also campaigns on broader issues affecting members.

Reporting to the CEO, you will manage national industrial campaigns and negotiate enterprise agreements in all areas of the media, including television, radio and newspapers. You will grow the Alliance's membership base and drive the organisation's vision, leading a team of organisers, negotiating collective agreements, and representing the Alliance in industrial tribunals.

You have excellent initiative and demonstrated high-level negotiation skills. Knowledge of the media and entertainment industries, and their legal framework, organising experience and/or experience in a related sector would be desirable. Your background may be industrial relations, human resources or law and it is likely you may currently be working in the union, music, performing arts, cultural, community, education, advocacy or not-for-profit sectors.

If you want to drive campaign strategy for this crucial representative body, please contact Olivia Ryan on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference # 30101.

